

Georgia Chapter Architectural Woodwork Institute-Winter Meeting

Atlanta, GA

Thirty plus Georgia Chapter Architectural Woodwork Institute (AWI) members and guests attended the winter meeting held on January 9, 2009 at the Georgia Tech Advanced Wood Products Laboratory. The business meeting included a facilities tour and bar-b-que luncheon followed by a presentation by Teresa McCain, AWI National of upcoming release of the 2009 AWI Quality Standards and training modules and National AWI areas of emphasis, including the Speakers Bureau and AWS format.

Attorney Michael P. Davis, Chamberlain Hrdlicka White Williams & Martin presented a very informative program addressing “The Big “If” in Pay-If- Paid Clauses” Payment Terms in Construction Contracts are Essential to Successful Projects. The program was illustrative using 7 Lessons relating to Pay-If – Paid clauses to contracts.

The following members were elected to serve for two year term of 2009 & 2010 as officers. President, Bruce Robb, Randall Brothers, Inc.; 1st. Vice President, Jere McCorkle, Hardwood, Inc.; 2nd. Vice President, Bill Moore, Dallas Millwork; Treasurer, Hugh Patrick, Patrick’s Turning Point; Secretary, Karl Brohammer, GA Tech AWPL and Mark Riles, Past President, Columbus Millwork.

The upcoming agenda for the 2009 programs will be posted on the GA Chapter AWI web site. See www.awigeorgia.org for updates of chapter activities and link to AWI National. GA Chapter President Robb reminded each that the membership dues statements were distributed and asked that prompt attention be given as well as a strong effort to encourage new membership in GA Chapter AWI.

Respectfully submitted:
Karl Brohammer, Chapter Secretary
